DECISION

- 1 The Tribunal declares that the Respondent's proposed charges for insurance premium in the sums of £688.85 in respect of service charge year 2013/2014 and £747.84 in respect of service charge year 2014/2015 are reasonable.
- 2 No order is made under s20C of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.

REASONS

1 The Applicant is the tenant of the property situate and known as Flat 2 , 2 Queens Grove Road North Chingford London E4 7BT (the property) and the Respondent is the landlord of the property.

2 The Applicant issued an application in the Tribunal on 27 November 2014 asking the Tribunal to make a declaration under s27A Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 as to the reasonableness or otherwise of the Respondent landlord's charge for insurance premium for the service charge years 2013/2014 and 2014/2015. Under the terms of the leases granted by the landlord to the various tenants the landlord is required to insure the property, the premium for so doing being reimbursed to it by way of the service charge payable by the tenants.

3 Directions were issued by the Tribunal on 10 December 2014.

4 The matter came before a Tribunal on 2 March 2015 . This was a paper consideration and neither party was present or represented but the Tribunal considered all the papers submitted to it including those from the Respondent.

5 The Applicant's claim is based on s27 Landlord and Tenant Act 1985, relating to the payability of and reasonableness of service charges as between landlord and tenant. Such a matter falls within the jurisdiction of the tribunal.

6 Under clause 5(d) of the lease the Landlord is obliged to insure the property and under Clause 1(d) the tenant is obliged to re-imburse the costs of insurance by way of additional rent.

7 The Applicant objected to the amount of the premium demanded by the Respondent on the basis that it was too high and therefore unreasonable, that lower alternative quotations had not been considered by the landlord and that the premium paid by the landlord was not the best available.

8 The Applicant cited lower quotations obtained by her from other insurance companies but failed to provide their details. The Tribunal has insufficient information before it to assess whether the quotations obtained by the Applicant are like for like to that offered by the Respondent.

9 The Tribunal considers that the Respondent, as a large commercial landlord, is entitled to insure the property on a block policy as part of its portfolio, and is required to demonstrate that the premium demanded is within the market norm but is not required to accept the cheapest quotation (see Berrycroft Management Co Ltd v Sinclair Gardens Investments (Kensington) Ltd (1996) EWHC Admin 50 ; Forcelux Ltd v Sweetman (2001) 2 EGLR 173; and Havenridge Ltd v Boston Dyers Ltd [1994] 49 EG 111).

10 In support of their contention that the premiums demanded were reasonable the Respondent supplied the Tribunal with a detailed analysis of the insurance market and of the steps taken by them to test the market and obtain appropriate cover. This analysis was not challenged by the Applicant.

11 In the instant case the Respondent's quotations appear to be within the market norm and are considered to be reasonable by the Tribunal.

12 An order was requested under s20C Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 . The Applicant did not supplement that application by legal argument and in view of the fact that the decision made by the Tribunal does not support her application declines to make such an order.

- (2) The relevant costs are the costs or estimated costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of the landlord, or a superior landlord, in connection with the matters for which the service charge is payable.
- (3) For this purpose -
 - (a) "costs" includes overheads, and

- (a) complied with in relation to the works or agreement, or
 - (b) dispensed with in relation to the works or agreement by (or on appeal from) the appropriate tribunal .
- (2) In this section “relevant contribution”, in relation to a tenant and any works or agreement, is the amount which he may be required under the terms of his lease to contribute (by the payment of service charges) to relevant costs incurred on carrying out the works or under the agreement.
- (3) This section applies to qualifying works if relevant costs incurred on carrying out the works exceed an appropriate amount.
