Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition by Uniphar plc of SISK Healthcare subject to commitments

17 August 2018

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission (“the CCPC”) has today cleared, subject to binding commitments, the proposed transaction whereby Uniphar Public Limited Company would acquire the entire issued share capital of ROI Healthco IOM 2 Limited and all of its subsidiaries (collectively “SISK Healthcare”) (“the Proposed Transaction”). On 26 April 2018, the Proposed Transaction was notified to the CCPC under section 18(1)(a) of the Competition Act 2002, as amended.

Further information is available from the CCPC’s Determination and in the CCPC’s Press Release, which is available on the website at: <https://www.ccpc.ie/business/ccpc-obtains-commitments-from-uniphar-to-secure-approval-for-proposed-acquisition-of-sisk-healthcare/>
