BETWEEN

Mrs B

PLAINTIFF

AND

Mr B

DEFENDANT

---

Application by defendant to raise injunctions contained in the Order of Justice dated 22nd August, 1988.

---

Advocate M.E. Whittaker for the plaintiff.

JUDGMENT

THE DEPUTY BAILIFF: We are not going to protect Mrs. B because we think that her behaviour has shown her to be unworthy of that protection. We are however not going to permit Mr. B to have contact with the three M children of Mrs. B previous marriage because we think it would be wrong that A in particular should in any way be exposed to a conflict in having to or being persuaded to disclose confidences given to her by her mother over the telephone or otherwise and we certainly would not do that without a Childrens' Office report first. What we are we are going to cancel the ouster injunction so that the defendant can return to the matrimonial home. We are going to cancel the non-molestation injunction as far as both the plaintiff and the child, Candice, are concerned, but the non-molestation injunction remains in full force in respect of the three M children. The defendant will have interim care and control of C , but the injunction restraining him from removing C from the Island and from this jurisdiction will remain. The whole until further order.

n.b: No authorities.
