

158.

ROYAL COURT
Poursuites Criminelles

22nd September, 1989

Before: P.R. Le Cras, Esq., Commissioner, and Jurats Vint and Le Boutillier

---

The Attorney General
- v -
Leslie Francis Hughes

---

Application for renewal of Police Court bail, following guilty plea and remand to Royal Court
(Superior Number) for sentence on 9th
October, 1989, on following counts:
Indecent assault (2 counts);
Procuring act of gross indecency;
Unlawful sexual intercourse.

---

The Attorney General
Advocate D.E. Le Cornu for the accused.

---

JUDGMENT

COMMISSIONER LE CRAS: All these are individual cases and although there is considerable weight and merit in the submission of the learned Attorney General we think it here proper, in the particular circumstances, to make an exception to the general rule. Bail will therefore be renewed on the existing terms until your client, Mr. Le Cornu, comes before the Superior Number of the Royal Court on the 9th October at 2.30 in the afternoon.

Authorities

Bernard: "The Criminal Court in Action" (1974 edn.): p.p. 114 & 115:
The Principles Governing the Decision; Power to attach conditions to Bail.