JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: The Court has noted that you are prepared to cooperate, and we hope you do. You must understand that if you do not, and if you fail to attend the alcohol centre, or if you break any other terms of the probation order which have been explained to you, you can be brought back here and sentenced for these offences, and they may well carry a prison sentence.

Therefore, you are placed on probation for a year, on the conditions mentioned by the Attorney General; with the particular condition that you attend the alcohol study group as and when required by your Probation Officer.
