No. 208.

Found that one having acted as pro-tutor, by taking the pupil into his family, managing his affairs, and intending a process before the council, for recovering the pupil back to his family, from some persons that had seduced him away, he, the pro-tutor, could make no advantage by a gift of the pupil's ward and marriage he had got, but was obliged to denude thereof upon re-payment of the sums he paid for it. No. 209.
