

MEDITATIO FUGÆ.

---

1734. November 27.           A. against B.

No. 1.

DEBTORS in meditatione fugæ,—warrants are commonly granted to apprehend them till they find caution judicio sisti, upon a summary petition, without trial of the fact and without answers, and even (which seems hard) without caution de damnis et expensis.

See NOTES.