

BASTARD.

---

1747. June 20.

THOMAS REID, against OFFICERS OF STATE and HEIRESS OF KINFAWNS.

A CREDITOR of a bastard deceased pursued a declarator of his bastardy, that he himself was a lawful creditor, and the estate liable to his debts, and that it ought to be adjudged to him, there being no donatar; and called the Officers of State. Upon a proof, we found, and decerned, and declared accordingly.

No. 1.

See NOTES.

---

BATTERY.

---

1742. February 18. DICK against HARRY STEILL.

BATTERY pendente processu, not sustained against Dick of Grange, because of his own weakness, not many degrees from an idiot, in summer 1741, and afterwards.

No. 1.

See NOTES.

49