For the Respondent: Mr S Walker, Home Office Presenting Officer

DECISION AND REASONS

Introduction

1. The Appellant, born on 10th August 1987, is a citizen of the Gambia. The Appellant had made application for leave to remain as a partner and that application had been refused by the Respondent on 3rd May 2017.

2. The Appellant has appealed that decision and her appeal was heard by Judge of the First-tier Tribunal Mace sitting at Hatton Cross on 28th September 2017. The judge had dismissed her appeal. Application for permission to appeal had been granted and the matter had come before me in the Upper Tribunal on 10th May 2018 firstly to decide if an error of law had been made by the First-tier Tribunal. It was conceded by the Respondent at that hearing that a material error of law had been made and I issued directions that the decision of the First-tier Tribunal should be set aside and a fresh decision made.
3. The matter came before me in accordance with that notice of resumed hearing. I was presented with an Appellant's bundle containing those documents listed at folios 2 to 183 on the index sheet to the bundle and a skeleton argument together with documentation from the original hearing in the First-tier Tribunal.
4. Mr Walker at the outset of the hearing conceded that the Appellant met the required threshold income of £18,600 in accordance with Appendix FM of the Immigration Rules and conceded therefore that her appeal should be allowed. That was a decision with which I agreed.

Notice of Decision

5. I allow this appeal under the Immigration Rules.

No anonymity direction is made.
