DECISION AND REMITTAL

1. On 26 September I wrote to the parties as follows:

“Following the grant of permission, the respondent has responded under rule 24, accepting that there is merit in the ground challenging the weight the judge gave to the failure to claim asylum on arrival in the United Kingdom when the principal appellant was a child and under the direction of adults around her, and inviting the Upper Tribunal to remit the appeal to the First-tier Tribunal for a fresh hearing.

I propose to accept that invitation which I understand applies to all three appeals.

Any submissions to the contrary will be accepted if received within 21 days of the date of this letter.”

2. No submissions have been received. I now set aside the determination of the First-tier Tribunal for error or law and remit the appellants’ appeal for fresh consideration by that Tribunal.

C. M. G. OCKELTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UPPER TRIBUNAL
IMMIGRATION AND ASYLUM CHAMBER
Date: 31 October 2018.
