FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL
PROPERTY CHAMBER
(RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY)

Case reference : LON/00BA/LDC/2016/0135

Property : 1 -18 Oxford House, 52 Parkside,
London SW19 5NE

Applicant : Oxford House (Wimbledon)
Management Co. Ltd

Representative : Warwick Estates

Respondent : The leaseholders as per the application.

Representative : In person

Type of application : Application for dispensation from some or all of the requirements to consult under S.20 of the Landlord
& Tenant Act 1985.

Tribunal member(s) : Ms. A. Hamilton-Farey

Date of decision : 15 December 2016

DECISION

1. The tribunal grants dispensation from all of the remaining requirements to consult the leaseholders in respect of the urgent roof repair works required at the property and identified in the application.

Background:

2. By an application dated 28 November 2016, the applicant sought dispensation from the remaining requirements to consult respondent leaseholders in relation to urgent repair and maintenance works which were required to the roof. The applicants had served a Notice of Intention and Notice of Proposals/Estimates on the respondents, but had curtailed the response period from 30 days to one week. In addition, the applicants had not chosen the cheapest contractor and sought dispensation for these items.

3. The applicants say that they are a resident-owned management company and the directors who have sanctioned this application pay the same service charges as other respondents. Various meetings had been held to discuss proposals and no responses either during those meetings or to any of the consultation notices had been received.

4. The tribunal issued directions on or around the 1 December. These required any respondent leaseholder who opposed the application for dispensation to provide a statement of case and reply form to the tribunal and applicant by 8 December 2016.

4. No statements have been received and the tribunal is therefore entitled to conclude that the respondents agree that the application for dispensation should be granted.

5. It appears to the tribunal that this remedial work should be carried out as soon as practically possible to ensure that the structure of the building is water-tight and that the leaks that had been occurring and causing damage to the common parts and potentially to flats should be remedied urgently. The tribunal also considers that the health and safety issues and inconvenience to leaseholders outweighs the necessity to consult. It is not, in this tribunal's view, reasonable for the landlord to wait for the statutory consultation to be completed.

6. In the circumstances, and given the very urgent nature of the works, the tribunal considers that it should exercise its' discretion and grant dispensation from all of the requirements to consult under S.20 of the Landlord & Tenant Act 1985. The tribunal does not consider that any prejudice would result from the grant of dispensation, and leaseholders retain their rights to challenge the extent/standard of the works and/or their cost.

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.
