DECISION

Decisions of the tribunal

- (1) The tribunal makes the determinations as set out under the various headings in this Decision
- (2) The tribunal makes an order under section 20C of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 so that none of the landlord's costs of the tribunal proceedings may be passed to the lessees through any service charge

The application

1. The Applicant seeks a determination pursuant to Schedule 11 to the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 ("the 2002 Act") as to the amount administration charges payable by the Applicant late payment charges in the total sum of £210.
2. The relevant legal provisions are set out in the Appendix to this decision.

The hearing

3. The Applicant submitted written representations and the written submissions were made by Wagner and Company, solicitors, on behalf of the Respondent.

The background

4. the application concerns demands by the respondent for administration charges in respect of late payment of service charges. Charges appear to have been levied on 26 February 2015 described as a late payment charge of £30 and an admin fee of £60. Similar charges were said to have been incurred on 5 June 2015 and a further late payment fee on 4 November 2015 in the sum of £30.
5. The Applicant/Respondent holds a long lease of the property which requires the landlord to provide services and the tenant to contribute towards their costs by way of a variable service charge. The specific provisions of the lease and will be referred to below, where appropriate.
6. The tribunal has had regard to the letters dated 8 February 2018 from Mr Kotecha and dated 12 February 2018 from Wagner and Co concerning possible withdrawal of the application. The correspondence does not amount to an agreement.

The issues

7. At the start of the hearing the parties identified the relevant issues for determination as follows:
  - (i) liability to pay Administration charges for alleged late payment.
8. Having heard evidence and submissions from the parties and considered all of the documents provided, the tribunal has made determinations on the various issues as follows.
9. Administration charges for late payment amounting to £210.

The tribunal's decision

10. The tribunal determines that the amount payable in respect of administration charges for late payment is nil.

Reasons for the tribunal's decision

11. In a letter dated 22 January 2018 to the Tribunal, Wagner and Co set out arguments why such charges are payable. At clause 2 (xiv)(b) of the lease the company charged with providing services allow is allowed to charge "an additional sum in respect of Administration expense..."
12. In the event that it is decided the provision in the lease does not entitle the landlord to make a late payment/administration charge then section 18 of the landlord and tenant act 1985 defined service charges as being an amount payable by a tenant to landlord as part of or in addition to rent for services, insurance or the landlord's costs of management
13. Section 19 of the 1985 Act states service charges are only payable to the extent they are reasonable
14. Paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 of the 2002 Act defines an administration charge as being "an amount payable by a tenant of a dwelling as part of or in addition to the rent which is payable directly or indirectly in respect of a failure by the tenant to make payment by the due date to the landlord". Paragraph 2 of Schedule 11 states a variable administration charge is payable only to the extent the amount of the charge is reasonable
15. Provided demands are properly made and no dispute is raised by the applicant then liability to pay Administration charges arises out of the failure to pay within a reasonable time. Clearly if tenants paid promptly administration charges would not be incurred.

16. The tribunal does not accept these arguments. Clause 2 (xiv)(b) of the lease entitles the landlord to charge an additional sum in respect of administration expenses of 12 ½% of the amount of the service charge payable under clause 2 (xiv)(b) of the lease. It does not permit the charging of ad hoc administration charges. The various sections quoted above from schedule 11 of the 2002 act only bite where a charge is payable by a tenant. The respondent has not shown that there is there is a provision in the lease for the tenant to pay any charge in this case.
17. The only sanction in respect of late payment is at paragraph 4(2) of the lease which is a forfeiture provision for arrears of more than 21 days.

Application under s.20C and refund of fees

18. In the application form the Applicant applied for an order under section 20C of the 1985 Act. Having read the submissions from the parties and taking into account the determinations above, the tribunal determines that it is just and equitable in the circumstances for an order to be made under section 20C of the 1985 Act, so that the Respondent may not pass any of its costs incurred in connection with the proceedings before the tribunal through the service charge.

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.

If the tribunal refuses to grant permission to appeal, a further application for permission may be made to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber).
