DECISION

Decisions of the tribunal

- (1) The tribunal grants dispensation from the consultation requirements under s20 ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.

The application

1. The Applicant seeks dispensation from the consultation requirements under s20ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.
2. The relevant legal provisions are set out in the Appendix to this decision.

The hearing

3. A written application was made by Ringley Law LLP, instructed by King Regents Place Management Co Ltd. The case was decided on paper and no appearances were made. The tribunal considered the written application form and the other documents supplied.

The background

4. The property which is the subject of this application is a block of 42 flats. A fire risk assessment was carried out of the property in early 2019 which identified that the existing doors to 41 boiler cupboards in the common parts are not fire doors and that they cannot be upgraded to achieve a 30-minute fire resistance. A copy of the report has not been supplied.
5. A specimen lease has been provided. A list of leaseholders has been provided with confirmation from the agents that they have been notified of the proposed works and that the application and direction of the tribunal have been displayed in the common parts. No representations have been received objecting to the application as to the scope of the works or appropriateness of the application. The works appear to fall within the repairing covenants in the lease.
6. A single estimate has been supplied from the Woodside Group dated 27 February 2019 in the sum of £34,519.13 plus VAT. The application does not say whether other estimates were obtained. A condition of the estimate was that a 50% deposit was required prior to commencement of the works to fund the manufacture of bespoke doors.
7. A certificate of payment dated 20 February 2019 has been supplied together with an invoice for 50% of the contract sum dated 8 April 2019 this apparent inconsistency is not explained.

8. Fire safety in blocks of flats is an important consideration and, given the need to carry out the works urgently once the problem had been identified, this method of proceeding is considered acceptable. The tribunal notes that no letters of objection have been received from leaseholders.

The tribunal's decision

9. The tribunal grants dispensation from the consultation requirements of under s20 ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 and the Service Charges (Consultation Requirements) (England) Regulations 2003. This does not affect the rights of challenge of reasonableness and payability of service charges under s27A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.

Reasons for the tribunal's decision

10. The works are required to ensure the safety of the residents. The leaseholders are aware of the position and have not objected. The tribunal is satisfied that the works are necessary as a matter of urgency in the circumstances and for the safety of the residents, grants dispensation.

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.

If the tribunal refuses to grant permission to appeal, a further application for permission may be made to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber).
