

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 (SECTION 50)

DECISION NOTICE

Dated 14th February 2006

Name of Public Authority: Civil Aviation Authority

Address of Public Authority: Aviation House
Gatwick Airport South
West Sussex
RH6 0YR

Nature of Complaint

The Information Commissioner (the "Commissioner") has received a complaint which states that on several occasions the following information has been requested from the Civil Aviation Authority under section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "Act"):

The registration details and the airline names of five aircraft impounded on the night of 21st December 1988, along with the reasons for the grounding of these aircraft and the authority that implemented the action.

It is alleged by the complainant that the Civil Aviation Authority holds the information requested but has failed to provide it in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

The Commissioner's Decision

Under section 50(1) of the Act, except where a complainant has failed to exhaust a local complaints procedure, or where the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, subject to undue delay, or has been withdrawn, the Commissioner is under a duty to consider whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of Part I of the Act and to issue a Decision Notice to both the complainant and the public authority.

The Commissioner's decision is as follows:

In response to the complainant's requests, the Civil Aviation Authority informed the complainant that it did not hold any records relating to the alleged grounding or impounding of aircraft on 21st December 1988. On each occasion, the Civil Aviation Authority responded to the complainant within the statutory time limit of 20 working days stipulated by section 10(1) of the Act.

The Commissioner has been advised by the Civil Aviation Authority that they do not hold the information requested by the complainant and have never taken any action to impound the aircraft in question. The Commissioner is satisfied with the assurances given by the Civil Aviation Authority and considers that the complainant's requests have been dealt with in accordance with section 1(1) of the Act.

Section 1(1) of the Act states:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

- (a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
- (b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

Action Required

In view of these matters the Commissioner hereby gives notice that in exercise of his powers under section 50 of the Act he does not require any remedial steps to be taken by the Civil Aviation Authority.

Right of Appeal

Either party has the right to appeal against this Decision Notice to the Information Tribunal (the "Tribunal"). Information about the appeals process can be obtained from:
