

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 8 October 2020

Public Authority: Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership
NHS Trust

Address: Bath NHS House
Newbridge Hill
Bath
BA1 3QE

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant has made a 110 part request for information relating to electroconvulsive therapy, serious incidents, restraints, seclusion and medication errors. The Trust refused to comply with the requests as it said it would exceed the cost limit under section 12 FOIA to do so.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Trust was correct to apply section 12 FOIA and that it was not therefore obliged to comply with the requests. The Commissioner also considers that the Trust provided the complainant with advice and assistance in accordance with its obligations under section 16 FOIA.
3. The Commissioner requires no steps to be taken.

Request and response

4. On 16 April 2020 the complainant made a request for information that contained 110 questions spread across five topics (electroconvulsive therapy, serious incidents, restraints, seclusion and medication errors). Please see Annex A attached.
5. On 17 April 2020 the Trust responded. It refused to comply with the request under section 12 FOIA as it said that it would exceed the cost limit to do so. The complainant requested an internal review on 17 April 2020. The Trust sent the outcome of its internal review on 17 April 2020. It upheld its original position.

Scope of the case

6. The complainant contacted the Commissioner to complain about the way the request for information had been handled.
7. The Commissioner has considered whether the Trust was correct to apply section 12 FOIA to the requests in this case and whether it complied with its obligations under section 16 FOIA.

Reasons for decision

Section 12 – cost exceeds appropriate limit

8. Section 12 of the FOIA allows a public authority to refuse to deal with a request where it estimates that it would exceed the appropriate cost limit to:
 - either comply with the request in its entirety, or
 - confirm or deny whether the requested information is held.
9. The estimate must be reasonable in the circumstances of the case. The appropriate limit is currently £600 for central government departments and £450 for all other public authorities. Public authorities can charge a maximum of £25 per hour to undertake work to comply with a request - 24 hours work for central government departments; 18 hours work for all other public authorities. If an authority estimates that complying with a request may cost more than the cost limit, it can consider the time taken to:
 - (a) determine whether it holds the information
 - (b) locate the information, or a document which may contain the information
 - (c) retrieve the information, or a document which may contain the information, and
 - (d) extract the information from a document containing it.
10. The appropriate limit for the Trust is £450 or the equivalent of 18 hours work.
11. The Trust has broken the request up into five parts, 22 questions relating to electroconvulsive therapy, 22 questions relating to serious incidents, 22 questions relating to restraints, 22 questions relating to seclusion and 22 questions relating to medication errors.

12. The Trust has identified that one of the greatest costs of dealing with these requests relate to restraint and seclusion. The Trust could only quickly answer some questions based on information it already collates and reports upon monthly e.g total number of restraints/seclusions. The remaining questions require a manual review of incident data in Ulysses and the patient record. It confirmed that there are hundreds of incidents to manually review to collate data on. As an estimate 15 minutes per incident for a total of 1666 restraint and 457 seclusion incidents, this equates to 416hrs.
13. Given the number of records that would need to be searched (2,123) even if the estimate were reduced to one minute per record it would still equate to over 35 hours work which vastly exceeds the 18 hour cost limit to comply. This is also just part of the 110 questions asked within the request and so the total cost of compliance would be much greater.
14. The Trust has confirmed that the estimate is based on the quickest method of retrieval.
15. Based upon the Trust's submissions, the Commissioner accepts that it would exceed the cost limit to comply with the requests and therefore section 12 was correctly engaged in this case.

Section 16 – Advice and Assistance

16. Under section 16 FOIA the Trust is obliged to provide the complainant with advice and assistance to help enable the complainant to refine the request to fall within the cost limit or explain why this would not be possible.
17. In this case the Trust confirmed it may be able to answer a reduced number of questions within the cost threshold.
18. It may have been useful for the Trust to indicate the approximate number or type of questions it could answer within the cost threshold, however given the volume of questions within the request, the Commissioner acknowledges the difficulty in doing so in this case. As the Trust has provided some advice and assistance, by asking the complainant to reduce the number of questions within the request, given the size of the request, the Commissioner considers it has complied with its obligations under section 16 FOIA.
