

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 2 December 2021

Public Authority: Home Office
Address: Peel Building
2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant requested information from the Home Office about Operation Pelican. By the date of this notice the Home Office had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Home Office has failed to complete its deliberations on the balance of the public interest within a reasonable time and has therefore breached section 17(3) of the FOIA.
3. The Commissioner requires the Home Office to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
 - Having confirmed that information is held within the scope of the request: either disclose the requested information or issue a refusal notice in accordance with the requirements of section 17 of the FOIA.
4. The Home Office must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of the Act and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 7 July 2021, the complainant wrote to the Home Office and requested information in the following terms:

"Under the FOIA, the FCDO informed me that the Home Office was one of the key departments involved in Operation Pelican - the UK government effort to remove [REDACTED] from the Ecuadorian embassy in London.

Please provide me with the following information:

1) How many Home Office officials were assigned to/working with Operation Pelican, and who was in charge?

2) What was Operation Pelican's budget per year from when it first began in June 2018, and how much did Operation Pelican spend since it first began?

3) Please provide me with all communications - via email, whatsapp, minuted meetings and phonecalls, text, ms teams, signal, or any other format - between Operation Pelican officials based in the Home Office and officials in the Ecuadorian embassy in London for the years 2018 and 2019."

6. The Home Office acknowledged the request on 7 July 2021.
7. On 6 August 2021, the Home Office wrote to the complainant to explain that it held information relevant to the complainant's request, but that it would need to extend the time taken to complete its public interest test considerations in respect of an exemption under section 24 of the FOIA.

Scope of the case

8. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 11 November 2021 to complain about the delay in the Home Office's consideration of the public interest test.
9. On 16 November 2021 the Commissioner wrote to the Home Office, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant within 10 working days. To date, a substantive response has still not been provided.
10. The Commissioner has considered whether the Home Office has complied with its obligations in relation to section 17 of the FOIA.

Reasons for decision

11. Section 1(1) of the FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

12. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".
13. Section 17(3) of the FOIA states that where a public authority is relying on a qualified exemption, it can have a "reasonable" extension of time to consider the public interest in maintaining the exemption or disclosing the information.
14. Although the FOIA does not define what constitutes a reasonable time, the Commissioner considers it reasonable to extend the time to provide a full response, including public interest considerations, by up to a further 20 working days. This means that the total time spent dealing with the request should not exceed 40 working days, unless there are exceptional circumstances. A public authority would need to fully justify any extension beyond 40 working days.
15. In this case, the total time taken by the Home Office has exceeded 40 working days. The Commissioner does not consider there to be any exceptional circumstances and finds that, by failing to complete its deliberations on the public interest within a reasonable time frame, the Home Office has not complied with section 17(3).
16. The Home Office is now required to finalise its public interest considerations under section 17(3) of the FOIA and respond to the complainant.
