Address: 70 Whitehall

London

SW1A 2AS

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant requested information from the Cabinet Office (the public authority). By the date of this notice the public authority had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the public authority has breached section 10(1) of FOIA in that it failed to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days.
3. The Commissioner requires the public authority to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
 - The public authority must provide a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under FOIA.¹
4. The public authority must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court

¹ The Commissioner expects the public authority to take appropriate precautions to protect any personal data when disclosing information in a spreadsheet or similar format; Information Commissioner's Office - Advisory note to public authorities | ICO pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 29 July 2023 the complainant wrote to the public authority and requested information in the following terms:

"It has now been well over twenty working days for this review to be completed. Consequently, please see the following meta-request. I would like to remind you of the ICO's specific advice regarding how to process meta-requests [1] and that this should not in any way alter or affect the continued, albeit late, processing of the internal review.

The request is for copies of all internal correspondance and communications concerning the processing of my FOI Request originally dated [date redacted] [2] concerning the Coronation Claims Office, and the subsequent, and still outstanding, internal review [2] of that.

Reasons for decision

6. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

7. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".

8. On 11 September 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the public authority, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant's request within 10 working days.
9. Despite this intervention the public authority has failed to respond to the complainant.
10. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the public authority did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the public authority has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with FOIA.
