

Privy Council Appeal No. 6 of 1915.

Ambalavana Pandara Sannadhi Avergal - - Appellant,

v.

The Secretary of State for India in Council - Respondent,

FROM

THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS.

JUDGMENT OF THE LORDS OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, DELIVERED THE 20TH JUNE, 1917.

Present at the Hearing :

LORD PARKER OF WADDINGTON.

MR. AMEER ALI.

SIR WALTER PHILLIMORE, BART.

[Delivered by LORD PARKER OF WADDINGTON.]

The Secretary of State for India in Council admits that the rights of the parties in this appeal are governed by the recent decision in the consolidated appeals of Kandukuri Bala Surya Prasada Row and Another v. the Secretary of State for India in Council (44 I.R. 166). The appellant on this admission asks for no further relief. Both parties leave the question of costs to the discretion of the Board. The declaration and injunction claimed by the appellant are, in their Lordships' opinion, too wide, and under the circumstances they think that justice will be met by humbly advising His Majesty that no order should be made on this appeal, except that the parties should each bear his own costs.

In the Privy Council.

AMBALAVANA PANDARA SANNADHI AVERGAL

o.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA IN COUNCIL

DELIVERED BY
LORD PARKER OF WADDINGTON.
