

Atma Singh - - - - - Appellant

v.

The King-Emperor - - - - - Respondent

FROM

THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT LAHORE

---

JUDGMENT OF THE LORDS OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF
THE PRIVY COUNCIL, DELIVERED THE 23RD JULY, 1945

---

Present at the Hearing

LORD THANKERTON

LORD GODDARD

SIR JOHN BEAUMONT

[Delivered by LORD THANKERTON]

In the present appeal it appears now that the appellant, while challenging the evidence of the approver, does not in any way challenge the findings of the Court with regard to the search for, and recovery of, a revolver and its connection with the accused and with the crime. That being so, it seems to their Lordships unnecessary to go any further into a consideration of the approver's evidence because if it is set aside it is clear that there has been no serious miscarriage of justice, there being amply sufficient evidence in the findings with regard to the revolver, taken along with the dying declaration of the deceased and the evidence of the deceased's elder son, so far as they go, in corroboration of the circumstances.

That being so, their Lordships cannot do otherwise than humbly advise His Majesty that this appeal should be dismissed.

In the Privy Council
