

Privy Council Appeal No. 22 of 1956

Chintamanie Ajit - - - - - Appellant

v.

The Demerara Storage Company, Limited - - - - - Respondents

FROM

THE WEST INDIAN COURT OF APPEAL

JUDGMENT OF THE LORDS OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE
OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, DELIVERED THE 26TH JUNE, 1957

Present at the Hearing :

LORD TUCKER

LORD DENNING

MR. L. M. D. DE SILVA

[Delivered by LORD TUCKER]

Their Lordships have given careful consideration to all that has been urged in this case by Mr. Khambatta, but they feel no doubt whatever that it does not come within any recognised exception to their Lordships' general rule that they will not entertain an appeal where there are concurrent findings of fact adverse to the appellant in the Courts below.

For these reasons their Lordships will humbly advise Her Majesty that this appeal be dismissed. The appellant must pay the costs of the appeal.

In the Privy Council

CHINTAMANIE AJIT
