COURT PROCEDURE AND PRACTICE

CHAPTER 1

General

Court rules and practice to apply

4.1.—(1) The provisions of the CPR (including any related Practice Directions) apply for the purposes of housing administration with any necessary modifications, except so far as disappplied by or inconsistent with these Rules.

(2) Housing administration proceedings must be allocated to the multi-track, for which CPR Part 29 makes provision, and accordingly those provisions of the CPR which provide for directions questionnaires and track allocation do not apply.

(3) CPR Part 32 applies to a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth made under these Rules as it applies to a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth made under CPR Part 22.

Performance of functions by the Court

4.2.—(1) Anything to be done under or by virtue of the Act or these Rules by, to or before the court may be done by, to or before a judge.

(2) The judge may authorise any act of a formal or administrative character which is not by statute that person's responsibility to be carried out by the chief clerk or any other officer of the court acting on that person's behalf, in accordance with directions given by the Lord Chancellor.

(3) The hearing of an application must be in open court unless the court directs otherwise.

CHAPTER 2

Making applications to court

Preliminary

4.3. This Chapter applies to all applications to court made within housing administration proceedings except an application for a housing administration order made under Part 2.

(2) A document may not be delivered to a court by electronic means unless this is expressly permitted by the CPR, a Practice Direction, or these Rules.

(3) A document delivered by electronic means is treated as delivered to the court at the time it is recorded by the court as having been received, or otherwise as the CPR, a Practice Direction or these Rules provide.

(2) The application may be heard on terms providing for the filing or service of documents, notification, or the carrying out of other formalities as the court thinks just.

Directions

4.9. The court may at any time give such directions as it thinks just as to—

- (b) fix a venue for the application to be heard, in which case rule 4.7 applies to the extent that it is relevant;

(10) If, for the purposes of powers conferred by the Act or these Rules, the Secretary of State or the housing administrator makes a request to inspect, or requests the transmission of, the court file of the housing administration proceedings, the court must comply with the request (unless the file is for the time being in use for the court's own purposes).

Office copies of documents

4.28.—(1) The court must provide an office copy of a document from the court file of housing administration proceedings to a person who has under these Rules the right to inspect the court file where that person has requested such a copy and paid the appropriate fee under rule 4.27(5).

(2) A person's right under this rule may be exercised on that person's behalf by someone authorised to do so by that person.

(3) An office copy must be in such form as the judge thinks appropriate, and must bear the court's seal.

CHAPTER 5

Costs

Application of Chapter and interpretation

4.29.—(1) This Chapter applies to the costs of and in connection with housing administration proceedings.

(2) In this Chapter “costs” includes charges and expenses.

(3) CPR Parts 44(20) and 47(21) (which relate to costs) apply to such costs.

Requirement to assess costs by the detailed procedure

4.30.—(1) Where the costs of any person are payable as an expense out of the insolvent estate, the amount payable must be decided by detailed assessment unless agreed between the housing administrator and the person entitled to payment.

(2) In the absence of agreement, the housing administrator may serve notice requiring the person entitled to payment to commence detailed assessment proceedings in accordance with CPR Part 47.

(3) Detailed assessment proceedings must be commenced in the court to which the housing administration proceedings are allocated.

(4) In any proceedings before the court, the court may order costs to be decided by detailed assessment.

Procedure where detailed assessment is required

4.31.—(1) A person whose costs in housing administration proceedings are required to be decided by detailed assessment must, on being required in writing to do so by the housing administrator, commence detailed assessment proceedings in accordance with CPR Part 47.

(2) If that person does not commence such proceedings within 3 months of being required to do so under paragraph 4.30(2), or within such further time as the court, on application, may permit, the housing administrator may deal with the administration without regard to any claim for costs by that person, whose claim is forfeited by such failure to commence proceedings.

(3) Where in any such case such a claim for costs lies additionally against a housing administrator in their personal capacity, that claim is also forfeited by such failure to commence proceedings.

(4) Where costs have been incurred in housing administration proceedings in the High Court and those proceedings are subsequently transferred to the county court, all costs of those proceedings directed by the court or otherwise required to be assessed may nevertheless, on the application of the person who incurred the costs, be ordered to be decided by detailed assessment in the High Court.

Costs paid otherwise than out of the assets of the registered provider

4.32. Where the amount of costs is decided by detailed assessment under an order of the court directing that those costs are to be paid otherwise than out of the assets of the registered provider, the costs officer must note on the final costs certificate by whom, or the manner in which, the costs are to be paid.

(20) Part 44 is substituted for a new Part 44 by S.I. 2013/262.

(21) Part 47 is substituted for a new Part 47 by S.I. 2013/262.

Award of costs against the housing administrator

4.33. Without prejudice to any provision of the Act by virtue of which the housing administrator is not in any event to be liable for costs and expenses, where a housing administrator is made a party to any proceedings on the application of another party to the proceedings, the housing administrator is not to be personally liable for the costs unless the court otherwise directs.

Applications for costs

4.34.—(1) This rule applies where a party to, or a person affected by, housing administration proceedings applies to the court for an order allowing their costs, or part of them, of or incidental to the proceedings, and that application is not made at that time of the proceedings.

(2) The applicant must serve a sealed copy of the application on the housing administrator.

(3) The housing administrator may appear on any such application.

(4) No costs of or incidental to the application are to be allowed to the applicant unless the court is satisfied that the application could not have been made at the time of the proceedings.

Costs and expenses of witnesses

4.35.—(1) Except as directed by the court no allowance as a witness in any examination or other proceedings before the court may be made to a relevant officer of the registered provider to which the proceedings relate.

(2) A person making any application in housing administration proceedings is not to be regarded as a witness on the hearing of the application, but a costs officer may allow their expenses of travelling and subsistence.

Final costs certificate

4.36.—(1) A final costs certificate of the costs officer is final and conclusive as to all matters which have not been objected to in the manner provided for under the rules of the court.

(2) Where it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of a costs officer that a final costs certificate has been lost or destroyed, the costs officer may issue a duplicate.

CHAPTER 6

Enforcement procedures

Enforcement of court orders

4.37.—(1) In any housing administration proceedings, orders of the court may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment to the same effect.

(2) Where an order in housing administration proceedings is made, or any process is issued, by the county court, the order or process may be enforced, executed and dealt with by any hearing centre, as if it had been made or issued for the enforcement of a judgment or order to the same effect made by that hearing centre.

(3) This applies whether or not the other hearing centre is one in which such insolvency proceedings may be commenced.

(4) Where a warrant for the arrest of a person is issued by the High Court, the warrant may be discharged by the county court where the person who is the subject of the warrant—

(a) has been brought before a hearing centre in which housing administration proceedings may be commenced; and

 (a) direct the governor of the prison to produce the arrested person for examination at the venue appointed; and
 (b) as soon as reasonably practicable deliver notice of the venue to the housing administrator.

(5) Where any property in the arrested person's possession is seized, the property must, in accordance with any directions of the court, be—

- (a) delivered to whoever is specified in the warrant as authorised to receive it, or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the directions in the warrant; or
 (b) kept by the officer after seizing it pending the receipt of written orders from the court as to its disposal.

(6) In this regulation references to property include books, papers and other documents and records.

(7) A warrant issued by the court under section 236 must be addressed to such officer of the High Court or of the county court as the warrant specifies, or to any constable.

CHAPTER 2

Creditors' claims in housing administration

Provable debts

5.2.—(1) All claims by creditors, except as provided in this rule, are provable as debts against the registered provider, whether they are present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages.

(2) An obligation arising under a confiscation order made under Parts 2, 3 or 4 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002⁽³²⁾ is not provable.

- (a) a claim arising by virtue of section 382(1)(a) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000⁽³³⁾, unless it is also a claim arising by virtue of sub-paragraph (b) of that section (a person who has suffered loss etc.); and
- (b) a claim which by virtue of the Act or any other enactment is a claim the payment of which is to be postponed.

(4) Nothing in this rule prejudices any enactment or rules of law under which a particular kind of debt is not provable, whether on grounds of public policy or otherwise.

Proving a debt

5.3.—(1) A creditor wishing to recover a debt must submit a proof to the housing administrator unless this rule or an order of the court provides otherwise.

(2) A creditor is deemed to have proved for the purposes of determination and payment of a dividend but not otherwise where—

- (a) the debt is a small debt;
- (b) a notice has been delivered to the creditor of notice of intention to declare a dividend or make a distribution under rule 5.26 which complies with rule 5.28; and
- (c) the creditor has not advised the housing administrator that the debt is incorrect or not owed in response to the notice.

Requirements for proof

5.4.—(1) A proof must—

- (a) be made out by, or under the direction of, the creditor and authenticated by the creditor or a person authorised on the creditor's behalf;
- (b) state the creditor's name and address;
- (c) identify the registered provider;
- (d) state the total amount of the creditor's claim (including any value added tax) as at the relevant date, less any payments made after that date in relation to the claim, any deduction under rule 5.20 and any adjustment by way of set-off in accordance with rule 5.24;
- (e) state whether or not the claim includes any outstanding uncapitalised interest;

Relevant amendments are made by paragraph 75(1) and (2) of Part 2 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), Part 1 of Schedule 8 and paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 14 to the Serious Crime Act 2007 (c. 27), and paragraphs 11 and 12 of the Schedule to the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 (c. 3).

 - (i) provide details of any document by reference to which the debt can be substantiated;
 - (j) be dated and authenticated; and
 - (k) state the name, postal address and authority of the person authenticating the proof (if someone other than the creditor).
- (2) Where sub-paragraph (i) applies the document need not be delivered with the proof unless the housing administrator has requested it.
- (3) The housing administrator may call for the creditor to produce any document or other evidence which the housing administrator considers is necessary to substantiate the whole or part of any claim.

Costs of proving

5.5. Unless the court otherwise orders—

- (a) each creditor bears the cost of proving for that creditor's own debt, including costs incurred in providing documents or evidence under rule 5.4(3); and
- (b) costs incurred by the housing administrator in estimating the value of a debt under rule 5.14 are payable out of the assets as an expense of the housing administration.

Allowing inspection of proofs

5.6. The housing administrator must, so long as proofs delivered to the housing administrator are in the possession of the housing administrator, allow them to be inspected, at all reasonable times on any business day, by the following—

- (a) a creditor who has delivered a proof (unless the proof has been wholly rejected for the purposes of dividend or otherwise or withdrawn);
- (b) a member of the registered provider;
- (c) a person acting on behalf of any of the above.

Admission and rejection of proofs for dividend

5.7.—(1) The housing administrator may admit or reject a proof for dividend (in whole or in part).

(2) If the housing administrator rejects a proof in whole or in part, the housing administrator must deliver to the creditor a statement of the reasons for doing so, as soon as reasonably practicable.

Appeal against decision on proof

5.8.—(1) If a creditor is dissatisfied with the housing administrator's decision under rule 5.7 in relation to the creditor's own proof (including a decision whether the debt is preferential), the creditor may apply to the court for the decision to be reversed or varied.

(2) The application must be made within 21 days of the creditor receiving the statement delivered under rule 5.7(2).

(3) A member or any other creditor may, if dissatisfied with the housing administrator's decision admitting or rejecting the whole or any part of a proof or agreeing to revalue a creditor's security under rule 5.15, apply to the court for the decision to be reversed or varied within 21 days of becoming aware of the housing administrator's decision.

(4) The court must fix a venue for the application to be heard.

(5) The applicant must deliver notice of the date and venue to the creditor who delivered the proof in question (unless it is the applicant's own proof) and the housing administrator.

(6) The housing administrator must, on receipt of the notice, file the relevant proof with the court, together (if appropriate) with a copy of the statement sent under rule 5.7(2).

(7) After the application has been heard and determined, a proof which was submitted by the creditor in hard copy form must be returned by the court to the housing administrator.

Housing administrator not liable for costs under rule 5.8

5.9. The housing administrator is not personally liable for costs incurred by any person in respect of an application under rule 5.8 unless the court otherwise orders.

Withdrawal or variation of proof

5.10.—(1) A creditor may withdraw a proof at any time by delivering a written notice to the housing administrator.

(2) The amount claimed by a creditor's proof may be varied at any time by agreement between the creditor and the housing administrator.

Exclusion of proof by the court

5.11.—(1) The court may exclude a proof or reduce the amount claimed—

- (a) on the housing administrator's application, where the housing administrator thinks that the proof has been improperly admitted, or ought to be reduced; or
- (b) on the application of a creditor or member, if the housing administrator declines to interfere in the matter.

(2) Where an application is made under paragraph (1), the court must fix a venue for the application to be heard.

(3) The applicant must deliver notice of the venue—

- (a) in the case of an application by the housing administrator, to the creditor who submitted the proof; and
- (b) in the case of an application by a creditor or member, to the housing administrator and to the creditor who made the proof (if not the applicant).

Debts of registered providers to rank equally

5.12. Debts to registered providers other than preferential debts rank equally between themselves and, after preferential debts, must be paid in full unless the assets are insufficient for meeting them, in which case they abate in equal proportions between themselves.

Division of unsold assets

5.13.—(1) This rule applies to any property which, from its peculiar nature or other special circumstances, cannot be readily or advantageously sold.

(2) The housing administrator may with agreement of the creditors divide the property in its existing form among the registered provider's creditors according to its estimated value.

Estimate of value of debt

5.14.—(1) The housing administrator must estimate the value of a debt that does not have a certain value because it is subject to a contingency or for any other reason.

(2) The housing administrator may revise such an estimate by reference to a change of circumstances or to information becoming available to the housing administrator.

(3) The housing administrator must inform the creditor of the housing administrator's estimate and any revision.

(4) Where the value of a debt is estimated under this rule, or by the court under section 168(3) or (5), the amount provable in the case of that debt is that of the estimate for the time being.

Secured creditor: value of security

5.15.—(1) A secured creditor may, with the agreement of the housing administrator or the permission of the court, at any time alter the value which that creditor has put upon a security in a proof.

(2) Where a secured creditor has voted in respect of the unsecured balance of the debt—

(a) the secured creditor may re-value the security only with the agreement of the housing administrator or the permission of the court; and

(b) where the revaluation was by agreement, the housing administrator must deliver a notice of the revaluation to the creditors within five business days after the housing administrator's agreement.

Secured creditor: surrender for non-disclosure

5.16.—(1) If a secured creditor fails to disclose a security in a proof, the secured creditor must surrender that security for the general benefit of creditors, unless the court, on application by the secured creditor, relieves the secured creditor from the effect of this rule on the ground that the omission was inadvertent or the result of honest mistake.

(2) If the court grants that relief, it may require or allow the creditor's proof to be amended, on such terms as may be just.

Secured creditor: redemption by housing administrator

5.17.—(1) The housing administrator may at any time deliver a notice to a creditor whose debt is secured that the housing administrator proposes, at the expiration of 28 days from the date of the notice, to redeem the security at the value put upon it in the creditor's proof.

(2) The creditor then has 21 days (or such longer period as the housing administrator may allow) in which to alter the value of the security in accordance with rule 5.15.

(3) If the creditor alters the value of the security with the agreement of the housing administrator or the court then the housing administrator may only redeem at the new value.

(4) If the housing administrator redeems the security the cost of transferring it is payable as an expense out of the estate.

(5) A creditor whose debt is secured may at any time deliver a notice to the housing administrator requiring the housing administrator to elect whether or not to redeem the security at the value then placed on it.

(6) The housing administrator then has three months in which to redeem the security or elect not to redeem the security.

Secured creditor: test of security's value

5.18.—(1) If the housing administrator is dissatisfied with the value which a secured creditor puts on a security in the creditor's proof, the housing administrator may require any property comprised in the security to be offered for sale.

(2) The terms of sale is to be as agreed between the housing administrator and the secured creditor, or as the court may direct.

(3) If the sale is by auction, the housing administrator, on behalf of the registered provider or the estate, and the creditor may bid.

(4) This rule does not apply if the value of the security has been altered with the court's permission.

Realisation or surrender of security by creditor

5.19.—(1) If a creditor who has valued a security subsequently realises the security (whether or not at the instance of the housing administrator)—

(a) the net amount realised must be treated in all respects (including in relation to any valuation in a proof) as an amended valuation made by the creditor; and

(b) the creditor may prove for the balance of the creditor's debt.

(2) A creditor who voluntarily surrenders a security may prove for the whole of the creditor's debt as if it were unsecured.

Discounts

5.20. All trade and other discounts (except a discount for immediate or early settlement) which would have been available to the registered provider or the debtor but for the housing administration proceedings must be deducted from the claim.

Debts in foreign currency

5.21.—(1) A proof for a debt incurred or payable in a foreign currency must state the amount of the debt in that currency.

(2) The housing administrator must convert all such debts into sterling at a single rate for each currency determined by the housing administrator by reference to the exchange rates prevailing on the relevant date.

(3) On the next occasion when the housing administrator communicates with the creditors the housing administrator must advise them of any rate so determined.

(4) A creditor who considers that the rate determined by the housing administrator is unreasonable may apply to the court.

(5) If on hearing the application the court finds that the rate is unreasonable it may itself determine the rate.

Payments of a periodical nature

5.22.—(1) In the case of rent and other payments of a periodical nature, the creditor may prove for any amounts due and unpaid up to the relevant date.

(2) Where at that date any payment was accruing due, the creditor may prove for so much as would have been due at that date, if accruing from day to day.

Interest

5.23.—(1) Where a debt proved in housing administration proceedings bears interest, that interest is provable as part of the debt except in so far as it is payable in respect of any period after the relevant date.

(2) In the circumstances set out in this rule, the creditor’s claim may include interest on the debt for periods before the relevant date although not previously reserved or agreed.

(3) If the debt is due by virtue of a written instrument and payable at a certain time, interest may be claimed for the period from that time to the relevant date.

(4) If the debt is due otherwise, interest may only be claimed if demand for payment of the debt was made in writing by or on behalf of the creditor and notice was delivered that interest would be payable from the date of the demand to the date of payment before the relevant date.

(5) Interest under paragraph (4) may only be claimed for the period from the date of the demand to the relevant date and, for the purposes of the Act and these Rules, must be charged at a rate not exceeding that mentioned in paragraph (6).

(6) The rate of interest to be claimed under paragraphs (3) and (4) is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838⁽³⁴⁾ on the relevant date.

(7) In a housing administration—

- (a) any surplus remaining after payment of the debts proved must, before being applied for any other purpose, be applied in paying interest on those debts in respect of the periods during which they have been outstanding since the relevant date;

5.24.—(1) This rule applies where the housing administrator intends to make a distribution and has delivered a notice under rule 5.26.

(2) An account must be taken as at the date of the notice of what is due from the registered provider and a creditor to each other in respect of their mutual dealings and the sums due from the one must be set off against the sums due from the other.

(3) If there is a balance owed to the creditor then only that balance is provable in the housing administration.

(4) If there is a balance owed to the registered provider that must be paid to the housing administrator as part of the assets.

(5) However if all or part of the balance owed to the registered provider results from a contingent or prospective debt owed by the creditor then the balance (or that part of it which results from the contingent or prospective debt) must be paid in full (without being discounted under rule 5.41) if and when that debt becomes due and payable.

(6) In this rule—

“obligation” means an obligation however arising, whether by virtue of an agreement, rule of law or otherwise; and

 - (i) after the registered provider entered housing administration, or
 - (ii) at a time when the creditor had notice that an application for a housing administration order was pending.

(7) A sum must be treated as being due to or from the registered provider for the purposes of paragraph (2) whether—

- (a) it is payable at present or in the future;
- (b) the obligation by virtue of which it is payable is certain or contingent; or
- (c) its amount is fixed or liquidated, or is capable of being ascertained by fixed rules or as a matter of opinion.

(8) For the purposes of this rule—

- (a) rule 5.14 applies to an obligation which, by reason of its being subject to a contingency or for any other reason, does not bear a certain value;
- (b) rules 5.21 to 5.23 apply to sums due to the registered provider which—
 - (i) are payable in a currency other than sterling,

Application of Chapter to particular class of creditors and to distributions

5.25.—(1) This Chapter applies where the housing administrator makes, or proposes to make, a distribution to any class of creditors other than secured creditors.

(2) Where the distribution is to a particular class of creditors in a housing administration, a reference in this Chapter to creditors is a reference to that class of creditors only.

Individual notices to creditors etc of intended dividend or distribution

5.26.—(1) Where the housing administrator intends to make a distribution to creditors or declare a dividend, the housing administrator must deliver a notice of that intention to all the creditors in the housing administration.

(2) Where the intended dividend is only for preferential creditors, the housing administrator is only required to deliver such a notice to the preferential creditors.

(3) Where the housing administrator intends to declare a dividend to unsecured creditors, the notice must also state the value of the prescribed part or that the court has made an order under section 176A(5) of the Act.

Contents of notice of intention to declare a dividend or make a distribution

5.27. A notice under 5.26 must contain the following—

- (a) a statement that the housing administrator intends to make a distribution to creditors or declare a dividend (as the case may be) within the period of two months from the last date for proving;
- (b) a statement whether the proposed distribution or dividend is interim or final;
- (c) the last date by which proofs may be delivered which must be—
 - (i) the same date for all creditors who prove, and
 - (ii) not less than 21 days from the date of the notice;
- (d) a statement of the place to which proofs must be delivered; and

Further contents of notice to creditors owed small debts etc.

5.28.—(1) The housing administrator may treat a debt, which is a small debt according to the accounting records or the statement of affairs of the registered provider, as if it were proved for the purposes of paying a dividend.

(2) Where the housing administrator intends to treat such a debt as if it were proved, the notice delivered under rule 5.26 must—

- (a) state the amount of the debt which the housing administrator believes to be owed to the creditor according to the accounting records or statement of affairs of the registered provider;
- (b) state that the housing administrator will treat the debt which is stated in the notice, being for £1,000 or less, as proved for the purposes of paying a dividend unless the creditor advises the housing administrator that the amount of the debt is incorrect or that no debt is owed;
- (c) require the creditor to notify the housing administrator by the last date for proving if the amount of the debt is incorrect or if no debt is owed; and
- (d) inform the creditor that where the creditor advises the housing administrator that the amount of the debt is incorrect the creditor must also submit a proof to receive a dividend.

(3) The information required by paragraph (2)(a) may take the form of a list of small debts which the housing administration intends to treat as proved which includes the debt owed to the particular creditor upon whom the notice is being delivered.

Gazette notice of intended first dividend or distribution

5.29.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (4) where the housing administrator intends to declare a first dividend or distribution, the housing administrator must gazette a notice containing—

(3) The housing administrator may in addition advertise such a notice in such other manner (if any) as the housing administrator thinks fit.

(4) Paragraph (1) does not apply where the housing administrator has previously, by a notice which has been gazetted, invited creditors to prove their debts.

Admission or rejection of proofs following last date for proving

5.30.—(1) Unless the housing administrator has already dealt with them, the housing administrator must within 14 days of the last date for proving set out in the notice under rule 5.26—

- (a) admit or reject (in whole or in part) proofs delivered to the housing administrator; or
- (b) make such provision in relation to them as the housing administrator thinks fit.

(2) The housing administrator is not obliged to deal with a proof delivered after the last date for proving, but the housing administrator may do if the housing administrator thinks fit.

(3) In the declaration of a dividend a payment must not be made more than once by virtue of the same debt.

Postponement or cancellation of dividend

5.31.—(1) The housing administrator may postpone or cancel the dividend in the period of two months from the last date for proving if an application is made to the court for the housing administrator's decision on a proof to be reversed or varied, or for a proof to be excluded, or for a reduction of the amount claimed.

(2) The housing administrator may postpone a dividend if the housing administrator considers that, due to the nature of the affairs of the person to whom the proceedings relate, there is real complexity in admitting or rejecting proofs of claims submitted.

(3) Where the dividend is postponed or cancelled a new notice under rule 5.26 will be required if the dividend is paid subsequently.

Declaration of dividend

5.32.—(1) The housing administrator must declare the dividend in the two month period referred to in rule 5.27(a) in accordance with the notice of intention to declare a dividend unless the housing administrator has had cause to postpone or cancel the dividend.

(2) The housing administrator must not declare a dividend so long as there is pending an application to the court to reverse or vary a decision of the housing administrator on a proof, or to exclude a proof or to reduce the amount claimed unless the court gives permission.

(3) If the court gives such permission, the housing administrator must make such provision in relation to the proof as the court directs.

Notice of declaration of a dividend

5.33.—(1) Where the housing administrator declares a dividend, the housing administrator must deliver notice of that fact to all creditors who have proved for their debts (subject to paragraph (4)).

- (b) the funds realised have already been distributed or used or allocated for paying the expenses of the housing administration.

(3) The information required by paragraph (2) may be contained in a progress report.

- (d) declare and distribute that dividend without regard to the claim of any person in respect of a debt not already proved.

(2) However the creditor is entitled to be paid a dividend or receive a distribution which the creditor has failed to receive out of any money for the time being available for the payment of a further dividend or making a further distribution.

(3) Such a dividend must be paid or distribution made before that money is applied to the payment of any further dividend or the making of any further distribution.

(4) If, after a creditor’s proof has been admitted, the proof is withdrawn or excluded, or the amount of it is reduced, the creditor is liable to repay to the housing administrator, for the credit of the registered provider’s estate, any amount overpaid by way of dividend.

Secured creditors

5.38.—(1) The following applies where a creditor alters the value of a security after a dividend has been declared.

(2) If the alteration reduces the creditor’s unsecured claim ranking for dividend, the creditor must as soon as reasonably practicable repay to the housing administrator, for the credit of the registered provider’s estate, any amount received by the creditor as dividend in excess of that to which the creditor would be entitled, having regard to the alteration of the value of the security.

(3) If the alteration increases the creditor’s unsecured claim, the creditor is entitled to receive from the housing administrator, out of any money for the time being available for the payment of a further dividend, before any such further dividend is paid, any dividend or dividends which the creditor has failed to receive, having regard to the alteration of the value of the security.

- (a) “X” is the value of the admitted proof; and
- (b) “n” is the period beginning with the relevant date and ending with the date on which the payment of the creditor's debt would otherwise be due, expressed in years (part of a year being expressed as a decimal fraction of a year).
