FOOD, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Healthy Start Scheme and Welfare Food
(Amendment) (England and Wales) Regulations 2019

Made	- - - -	1st May 2019
Laid before Parliament		7th May 2019
Coming into force	- -	4th June 2019

The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13(1), (3), (4)(h) and (11) of the Social Security Act 1988(1) and section 175(3) and (4) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(2), makes the following Regulations.

In accordance with section 13(2) of the Social Security Act 1988(3), the Secretary of State has consulted with the Welsh Ministers(4).

Citation, commencement, extent and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Healthy Start Scheme and Welfare Food (Amendment) (England and Wales) Regulations 2019 and come into force on 4th June 2019.

(2) These Regulations extend to England and Wales.

(3) In these regulations “the principal Regulations” means the Healthy Start Scheme and Welfare Food (Amendment) Regulations 2005(5).

- (1) 1988 c.7; section 13 was substituted by section 185(1) of the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003 (c.43), subject to savings made by S.I. 2005/2279. Following the commencement of section 27 of the Scotland Act 2016 (c.11) by S.I. 2018/1364, Scottish Ministers have legislative competence in respect of the subject-matter of section 13 in relation to Scotland. Section 13(11) is an interpretation provision and is cited for the meaning of “prescribed” and “regulations”.
- (2) 1992 c.4; section 175(4) was amended by paragraph 29(4) of Schedule 3 to the Social Security Contributions (Transfer of Functions, etc.) Act 1999 (c.2). Section 175(3) and (4) are applied by section 15A(1) of the Social Security Act 1988 (c.7) which itself was inserted by paragraph 8(10) of Schedule 6 to the Social Security Act 1990 (c.27) and amended by paragraph 96 of Schedule 2 to the Social Security (Consequential Provisions) Act 1992 (c.6) and section 185(2) of the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003 (c.43). The ancillary powers in section 175(3) and (4) have also transferred to Scottish Ministers, insofar as is necessary to exercise functions under section 13 of the Social Security Act 1988 (c.7) following the commencement of section 27 of the Scotland Act 2016 (c.11).
- (3) Section 13(2) was amended by section 27(5) of the Scotland Act 2016 (c.11) (subject to transitional provisions specified in section 70 of that Act).
- (4) Functions conferred or imposed on the National Assembly for Wales immediately before the first appointment of a First Minister under section 46 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c.32) by an enactment contained in an Act were transferred to the Welsh Ministers by paragraph 30(2)(c) of Schedule 11 to that Act.
- (5) S.I. 2005/3262.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Heathy Start Scheme and Welfare Food (Amendment) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/3262) (“the principal Regulations”) which establish a scheme to improve nutrition in pregnant women, mothers and young children by providing vouchers for certain basic foods and vitamins. These Regulations apply in England and Wales.

Regulation 3 amends regulation 3 of the principal Regulations to introduce the following new categories of claimant:

- a pregnant woman who is aged 18 or over and entitled to state pension credit;
- a pregnant woman who is aged 18 or over and is a member of a couple where the other member of that couple is entitled to state pension credit;
- a pregnant woman who is aged 18 or over and is the responsibility of a person who is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount that those who have responsibility for a child or a qualifying young person may be entitled to as part of their state pension credit award (‘the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person’);
- a mother who is aged 16 and over and has a child under the age of 1 and who is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person;
- a mother who is aged 16 and over and has a child under the age of 1 and who is a member of a couple where the other member of that couple is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person;
- a mother who is aged 16 and over and has a child under the age of 1 and who is the responsibility of a person who is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person;
- a child who is under the age of 4 who is the responsibility of a person who is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person;
- a child who is under the age of 4 for whom a relevant child (defined to include a child who is the responsibility of a person who is entitled to state pension credit which includes the additional amount for a child or qualifying young person) has parental responsibility.

Regulation 4 amends the provisions on making a claim for benefit in respect of the categories of claimant being introduced by these Regulations.

Regulation 5 provides further clarification on the information needed for an application for benefit and also provides for the inclusion of a signed declaration in a claim for benefit under the principal Regulations by the categories of claimant being introduced by these Regulations.

An impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
