2. After Part 3 (Benefits in respect of periods before amendment day) insert —

“PART 3A

Benefits in respect of periods after amendment day

Benefits in respect of period after amendments

70A.—(1) This Part applies where—

- (a) a member (“P”) retired, or died without retiring; and
- (b) approximated amounts of pension were paid to P after the amendment day in respect of P’s retirement or death under arrangements made for the purpose of providing benefits after the amendment day corresponding to an anticipated increase in benefits (including an increase from zero) payable under the principal scheme as a consequence of amendments made by these Regulations.

(2) In this Part, expressions defined for the purpose of the 2017 Regulations have the same meaning as in those Regulations.

Meaning of “approximated pension payments amount” and “post-amendment day benefits increase amount”

70B. In this Part—

- (a) the “approximated pension payments amount” means the total amount of pension that was paid to a person under arrangements made for the purpose of providing increased benefits after the amendment day in respect of P’s retirement or death under the principal scheme in lieu of benefits being finally calculated in accordance with the principal scheme;
- (b) the “post-amendment day benefits increase amount” means the total amount of the increase in benefits under the principal scheme that would have been payable after the amendment day in respect of P’s retirement or death, after deduction of any contributions that would have been payable, as a consequence of amendments made by these Regulations, if those benefits had been finally calculated in accordance with the principal scheme on the day before the day on which P retired or died without having retired.

Additional payment where no or insufficient approximated pension payments made 70C.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where the approximated pension payments amount in relation to a person is less than the post-amendment day benefits increase amount.

(2) The administrators must pay to the person the amount of the difference between the two amounts mentioned in paragraph (1).

Repayment of any excess approximated pension payments

70D.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where the approximated pension payments amount in relation to a person is greater than the post-amendment day benefits increase amount.

(2) The administrators may recover the difference between the two amounts mentioned in paragraph (1) from the person, including by way of deduction from any benefits to which P is entitled under the principal scheme, including in such instalments from payments of retirement pension as the administrators may determine.”.

(2) If the cost of this scheme goes beyond the margin either side of the employer cost cap for this scheme specified in regulations under section 12(5)(a) (employer cost cap) of the Act^(a), the Lord Chancellor must consult the scheme advisory board and such persons as appear likely to be affected by any steps that may be taken, with a view to reaching agreement with the relevant heads of jurisdiction on the steps required to achieve the target cost for this scheme.

(3) If, following such consultation, agreement is not reached, the percentage of the member’s pensionable earnings specified in regulation 30(3) as the amount of earned pension for a scheme year must be adjusted for pensionable earnings after the date of adjustment, so that the target cost for this scheme is achieved.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make a range of amendments across the judicial pension schemes.

Part 2 of these Regulations inserts a new part into the Judicial Pensions (Fee-Paid Judges) (Amendment) Regulations 2023 (“the 2023 Regulations”), as established under the powers conferred by section 18A of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (c. 8) (“JUPRA”). The 2023 Regulations amend the 2017 Regulations, as defined below. The new “Part 3A” will provide for the reconciliation of certain approximated pensions paid out after 1 April 2023 with the formal entitlements owing under the 2017 Regulations.

Part 3 of these Regulations amends the Judicial Pensions Regulations 2022 (“the 2022 Regulations”), as established under the powers conferred by section 1(1) of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 (c. 25) (“the 2013 Act”). Regulation 3 provides that offices, where they have an entitlement start date, may have retrospective benefits under the 2022 Regulations and Regulation 6 inserts an employer cost cap into the 2022 Regulations, as required by section 12 of the 2013 Act.

Part 4 of these Regulations amends the Judicial Pensions (Fee-Paid Judges) Regulations 2017 (“the 2017 Regulations”), as established under the powers conferred by section 18A of JUPRA. In particular, it corrects errors, provides new offices with eligibility under the 2017 Regulations and modifies the operation of one of the additional benefits schemes (the Fee-Paid Judicial Added Benefits Scheme) through a range of amendments reflecting actuarial advice.

Part 5 of these Regulations amends the Judicial Pensions Regulations 2015 (“the 2015 Regulations”), as established under the powers conferred by section 1(1) of the 2013 Act. Regulation 39 provides that offices, where they have an entitlement start date, may have retrospective benefits under the 2015 Regulations.

Part 6 of these Regulations amends the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 (Judicial Offices) Order 2015 (“the Judicial Offices Order”), as established under the powers conferred by paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the 2013 Act. Specifically, it amends the Schedule to the Judicial Offices Order so that a further office has a judicial pension entitlement under the 2022 Regulations.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
