* (Declaration)
“... the Government of Pakistan recognize as compulsory ipso facto and without special agreement, in relation to any other State accepting the same obligation, the jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice in all legal disputes after the 24th June, 1948, arising, concerning:—
(a) The interpretation of a treaty;
(b) Any question of international law;
(c) The existence of any fact which, if established, would constitute a breach of an international obligation;
(d) The nature or extent of the reparation to be made for the breach of an international obligation;
Provided, that the declaration shall not apply to:—
(a) Disputes the solution of which the parties shall entrust to other tribunals by virtue of agreements already in existence or which may be concluded in the future; or
(b) Disputes with regard to matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the Government of Pakistan as determined by the Government of Pakistan; or
(c) Disputes arising under a multilateral treaty unless
(i) all parties to the treaty affected by the decision are also parties to the case before the Court, or
(ii) the Government of Pakistan specially agree to jurisdiction; and provided further, that this declaration shall remain in force till such time as notice may be given to terminate it.”
† (Translation of Declaration)
“ I declare on behalf of the Belgian Government that I recognize as compulsory ipso facto and without special agreement, in relation to any other State accepting the same obligation, the jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice, in conformity with Article 36, paragraph 2 of the Statute of the Court, in legal disputes arising after July 13, 1948, concerning situations or facts subsequent to that date, except those in regard to which the parties have agreed or may agree to have recourse to another method of pacific settlement.
This declaration is made subject to ratification. It shall take effect on the day of deposit <sup>(1)</sup> of the instrument of ratification for a period of five years. Upon the expiry of that period, it shall continue to have effect until notice of its termination is given.”
V. Larock, Minister of Foreign Affairs.
