In accordance with section 9(4) of that Act, a draft of this instrument was laid before and approved by a resolution of the National Assembly for Wales.

Title, commencement and application

1. (1) The title of these Regulations is the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud (Detection of Fraud) (Wales) Regulations 2014 and they come into force on 28 March 2014.

(2) These Regulations apply in relation to Wales.

Interpretation

2. (1) In these Regulations—

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations—

(a) references to a document includes references to anything in which information is recorded in electronic or any other form;

(b) the requirement that notice be given by an authorised officer in writing will be taken to be satisfied in any case where the contents of the notice—

(i) are transmitted to the recipient of the notice by electronic means; and

(ii) are received by that person in a form that is legible and capable of being recorded for future reference.

Authorisation by local authorities

3. (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), a local authority may grant an authorisation to an individual to exercise the powers conferred on an authorised officer under regulation 4.

(2) A local authority may only grant authorisation to an individual if that person is—

- (a) an individual employed by that authority; or
- (b) an individual employed by another local authority or joint committee that carries out functions relating to housing fraud investigation purposes on behalf of that authority.

(3) An authorisation granted to an individual for the purposes of these Regulations—

- (a) must be in writing and provided to that individual as evidence of their entitlement to exercise powers conferred by these Regulations;
- (b) may contain provision as to the period for which the authorisation is to have effect; and
- (c) may restrict the powers exercisable by virtue of the authorisation so as to prohibit their exercise except for particular purposes or in particular circumstances.

(4) An authorisation may be withdrawn at any time in writing by the local authority that granted it.

(5) The written authorisation or withdrawal of an authorisation by any local authority must be signed by either—

- (a) the officer designated under section 4 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989(2) as the head of the authority's paid service; or
- (b) the officer who is the authority's chief finance officer (within the meaning of section 5 of that Act).

(6) An individual who for the time being is authorised for the purposes of regulation 4, is only entitled to exercise any of the powers which are conferred on an authorised officer by that regulation for housing fraud investigation purposes.

(7) An authorised officer may exercise the powers conferred under regulation 4 in relation to a dwelling-house—

- (a) whether or not that dwelling-house is or was let under a tenancy under which the landlord is or was the authority by which the officer's authorisation was granted; and
- (b) whether or not that dwelling house is located in the area of the authority by which the officer's authorisation was granted.

Power to require information

4. (1) An authorised officer who has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person—

- (a) is a person falling within paragraph (2); and
- (b) has or may have possession of or access to any information about any matter that is relevant to housing fraud investigation purposes, may, by written notice, require that person to provide all such information described in the notice of which that person has possession, or to which that person has access, and which it is reasonable for the authorised officer to require for the purpose so mentioned.

(2) The persons who fall within this paragraph are—

- (a) any bank;
- (b) any person carrying on a business the whole or a significant part of which consists of the provision of credit (whether secured or unsecured) to members of the public;

(3) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, the powers conferred by this regulation on an authorised officer to require information from any person by virtue of that person falling within paragraph (2) are exercisable for the purpose only of obtaining information relating to a particular person identified (by name or description) by the officer.

(4) An authorised officer must not, in exercise of those powers, require any information from any person by virtue of that person falling within paragraph (2) unless it appears to that officer that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person to whom it relates is—

(6) Nothing in paragraph (3) or (4) prevents an authorised person from exercising the powers conferred by this regulation for requiring information from a person who provides a telecommunications service, about the identity and postal address of a person identified by the authorised officer solely by reference to a telephone number or electronic address used in connection with the provision of such a service.

(7) The obligation of a person to provide information in accordance with a notice under this regulation will be discharged only by the provision of that information, at such reasonable time and in such form as may be specified in the notice, to the authorised officer who—
